My Dear Melissa,

Sorry for the seeming neglect to your letter & questions.

It helps me along, when you mention the expansion of your circle, perhaps you could put me up for a couple of days in the new year, and join in to one of the meetings.

In the new year I will be making a lot of changes in my way of living, as to my family and acquaintances, so perhaps I may pass on to you some items, but as yet I do not know. The person I had in mind is a severe "junkie" [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] So you will see why I'm understand what to do for the best.

Please try to understand the letter I'm in send your loving thoughts to heal this situation. Doreen could be described as one of the old ones, she was intent almost a year before me as I recall, but the last lead injury I had has left so many blanks it takes me uplift; doing a circle to heal by suitable spell and ~~incantations~~ individial gifts of healing etc., there are times when a witch cannot function on his-her own it takes the power of love and perfect trust to help me. Sorry for babbling will close now. and hope all is well with you and yours.

Yours in the Lps.

Blessed Be.
